

New Testament Passages for the Rapture

1. I Thessalonians 4:13-18 - "classic" New Testament passage on the Rapture
2. I Corinthians 15:51-53

4. John 14:1-3
5. Revelation 4:1 - John is told to "Come up here ..."

Old Testament types: Enoch (Gen. 5:24) and Elijah (2 Kings 2:11)

Arguments for a Pre-Tribulation Rapture

1. God has not appointed the church to wrath.

I Thessalonians 1:10, 5:9, Romans 5:9

2. God's promise to the righteous

Revelation 3:10 - promise to the church of Philadelphia

Note: God's promise is not preservation through but deliverance from that hour. God's character and His desire is to deliver the righteous.

Psalm 34:19

John 14:1-3 - the analogy of the bride

3. The word "church" appears 19 times in chapters 1 through 3 but is not used again until chapter 22.
4. The aspect of the "imminent" return of Christ, that he could return at any moment
See John 21:22-23
5. Pretribulationism is the only theory which clearly maintains the distinction between Israel and the church.

Arguments for Mid-Tribulation Rapture

- 1) The words “saints” and “elect” are found in passages containing Tribulation events
Matthew 24:24, Revelation 13:7,10; 14:12
- 2 Daniel 7:25 says the AntiChrist will have great power and will wear out the saints.
- 3) The last trumpet in I Corinthians 15:52 is the last of the 7 trumpets in Revelation 11, which is at the mid-point of the Tribulation.
- 4) Revelation 11 contains the rapture as the two witnesses are taken to heaven.

Pre-Wrath Rapture View - Marv Rosenthal

1. The pre-wrath rapture theory says that the rapture occurs before the “great day of wrath. (Rev. 6:17)
2. Believers will go through most of the tribulation but not the time of God’s wrath just before the end of the tribulation. (Matt. 24:21)
3. Before God pours out His final judgment on the world, the church will be caught up to heaven. Some use Revelation 14:14-16 to teach the Rapture happens closer to the end of the Tribulation.
